PORTRAITS

FRENCH GOVERNORS OF CANADA.

1. SAMUEL DE CHAMPLAIN—(1608-1635.)

First Governor of New France and Founder of Quebec.

2. DE CHATEAUFORT.

Acting Governor of the colony until May, 1636.

3. CHARLES HUALT DE MONTMAGNY—(1636-1647.)

During his administration the settlement of Montreal was established

4. LOUIS D'AILLEBOUST—(1647-1651.)

He originally came to Canada with colonists for the Island of Montreal. Died at Quebec in 1660.

5. JEAN DE LAUZON—(1651-1658.)

He was one of the principals of Richelieu's company. De Lauzon was succeeded by his son, who in turn gave way to the former governor, D'Ailleboust, who was superseded in 1658 by Viscount D'Argenson.

6. PIERRE DE VOYER, VISCOUNT D'ARGENSON - (1658-1661.)

His government seems to have consisted of little else than barbari invasions, and civil and religious quarrels.

7. PIERRE DU BOIS, BARON D'AVAUGOUR - (1661-1663.)

He was of a resolute temperament and brought into the affairs of Canada the rigidity that he had contracted in the military service; and during the whole time he held office in New France, he had constant disputes with Bishop Laval, principally with reference to the liquor traffic, which the latter wished to prohibit.

8. AUGUSTIN DE SAFFRAY-MÉSY—(1663-1665.)

He was a man of haughty and ob-tinate temper, and having quarrelled with his Council, he took upon himself to send back to France two of its principal members—an arbitrary act which procured his own recall in 1665. He died at Quebec, however, before the dispatch arrived.

9. ALEXANDRE DE PROUVILLE, MARQUIS DE TRACY.

Arrived at Quebec in 1665, as Viceroy and Lieutenant-General; DE COURCELLES was named under him as Governor, and JEAN TALON as Intendant. The Viceroy brought with him the Carignan regiment and a large body of settlers.

10. DANIEL DE REMY DE COURCELLES (1666-1672.)

By skilful diplomacy, he averted a threatened Indian war. He had fixed upon Cataraqui, near the present site of Kingston, Ont., as an eligible point for the erection of a fort for the protection of the fur traders and to check Indian incursions,

11. LOUIS DE BUADE, BARON DE PALUAN AND COMTE DE FRONTENAC—(1672-1682.)—(1689-1698.)

Frontenac was a bold and valorous soldier and a most successful administrator, but principally on account of some despotic acts, he was recalled in 1682.

In 1689, he was reappointed governor, and in 1690, he defeated Sir William Phipps and the English fleet before Quebec. He died in 1698, and was inhumed in the Recollet Church at Quebec.

12. M. LE FEBVRE DE LA BARRE—(1682-1685)

His general management of affairs was extremely bad, and in consequence of dissatisfaction felt at his want of success he was recalled in 1685, and he left the province without regret.

13. JACQUES RENÉ DE BRISAY, MARQUIS DE DENONVILLE—(1685-1689)

14. LOUIS HECTOR DE CALLIÈRES—(1698-1703.)

In 1701, a temporary pacification and alliance of all the Indian tribes was effected by him. Died at Quebec in 1703.

15. PHILIPPE DE RIGAUD, MARQUIS DE VAUDREUIL—(1703-1725.)

He was married at Quebec, to the daughter of Chevalier de Soulanges and Miss de Lotbinière. This marriage was viewed with dissatisfaction by the French ministry, who did not wish him, nor any of the governors, to ally themselves with the Canadian families.

He died at Quebec, 1725, universally regretted by the people of the colony. His administration was marked, for the most part, with tranquility, and his measures, whether civil or military, were crowned with success.

16. CHARLES, MARQUIS DE BEAUHARNOIS—(1726-1746.)

Baron de Longueuil acted as administrator in the interval since the death of Vaudreuil.

17. ROLAND MICHEL BARRIN, COUNT DE LA GALISSONNIERE—(1747-1749.)

He was a distinguished marine officer, active, energetic and enlightened as a civilian, and spent in scientific pursuits such leisure as his public duties allowed him. He gave a strong impulse to the administration.

18. JACQUES PIERRE DE TAFFANEL, MARQUIS DE LA JONQUIÈRE (1749-1751.)

His government was marked by considerable firmness, and he carried out generally the policy of La Galissonnière.

He died at Quebec, May 17th, 1752, and was buried in the Recollet Church, alongside of Frontenac and Vaudreuil.

19. DUQUESNE, DE MENNEVALLE, MARQUIS—(1752-1755.)

A brave and judicious Governor, who during three most important years (1752-55) pursued such a firm and vigorous policy, as to call forth the admiration of the people of Canada and his native country.

20. PIERRE-FRANCOIS, MARQUIS de VAUDREUIL-CAVAGNAL—
(1755-1760.)

The last Governor of Canada under French domination, and undoubtedly one of the best.

For 32 years he presided over the Church in British North America, and raised it from nothing, as it were, to the high standard which it had attained at his death. He died at Marchmont, near Quebec, June 16th 1825, aged 75.

He was the founder of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, and the Church Society. He is deservedly remembered for the active part he took in ministering to the fever-stricken emigrants at Grosse Isle, in 1849, and also during the time of the cholera of 1832-4. He died in 1863.
